

16 July 1952

Dear Nat:

Please excuse the long delay in answering your letter of 25 April 1952 with regard to [redacted]. The reason for the delay is that we have been canvassing the possibility of finding a place for [redacted] and I have just received a report on the subject. Unfortunately, we do not have any available vacancies in the classification which [redacted] suggests. In fact, at the moment we are only taking on persons in the higher brackets who have rather specialized qualifications in particular fields. I am sorry to be discouraging, but if anything should turn up I shall certainly keep [redacted] in mind and appreciate your having written me.

Monday last I dined with Mott just as he was leaving for Miami, Nassau, etc. We teased him a bit about the choice he was making for a summer vacation, but he may be wiser than we know.

Love to Kitty from us both.

As ever,
